Article I - Name and Mission

Section 1. Name

This organization shall be known as the Fire and Life Safety Section of the International Association of Fire Chiefs, Inc., herein called the "Association," or "IAFC. "

Section 2. Mission and Vision Statements

The mission of the Fire and Life Safety Section of the IAFC is to reduce injury, life loss and property loss by advancing the field of fire prevention and life safety with leadership and vision for fire safety professionals.

- It is the vision of the Fire and Life Safety Section to create an environment in which: Deaths from structure fires are reduced to zero and property damage from structure fires is limited to the area of origin;
- Firefighter deaths due to fire ground operations are reduced to zero;
- The organizational culture of local fire departments and the International Association of Fire Chiefs places a greater priority on fire prevention and life safety;
- The public is clearly aware of the fire problem and their role in fire prevention.

Article II – Membership and Dues

Section 1. Section Membership

A. Section membership is available to those individuals who are Regular, Associate, Basic, Departmental or Affiliate members of the IAFC as long as they maintain their Association dues. Failure to maintain Association membership will result in loss of section membership. These members of the section are eligible to hold office in the section and vote on all section ballots.

B. Section membership is also available to IAFC Life members. IAFC Life members do not pay section dues. These members of the section are eligible to vote on all section ballots but may not hold office. To receive free section membership upon attainment of IAFC Life member status, the member shall have been a dues-paying section member for at least two years prior to obtaining Life membership.

Section 2. Section Dues

The annual section dues shall be set by the section's Board of Directors in an amount no greater than $75.00. Section dues for IAFC members shall be payable in conjunction with the member's Association dues. Any IAFC member wishing to join the section prior to the date of Association dues renewal shall pay the section dues upon joining; thereafter, when the Association membership dues are paid.

Section 3. Suspension or Revocation of Membership

The FLSS Section supports the IAFC policy on suspension or revocation of members of the section, the section's Executive Committee, or the section's Board of Directors, if the member accepts a position or engages in conduct that, in the opinion of that section's Board of Directors, conflicts with the interests and values of that section, or of the IAFC. Refer to the IAFC Constitution and Bylaws, Article II for details.

Article III – Section Officers and Directors

Section 1. Executive Committee

The Executive Committee (officers) of the section shall consist of the section chair, vice chair, secretary/treasurer and international director. Each officer shall serve a term of office of two (2) years or until his/her successor is elected. The immediate past chair shall serve as an advisory member of the Executive Committee. See Article VI, Section 4 for eligibility requirements.

Section 2. Board of Directors

The Board of Directors shall comply with all eligibility requirements as set forth in Article VI, Section 4 of these bylaws and shall consist of:

- A. The section's five (4) Executive Committee members (officers), six (6) at-large members, and four (4) specialty representative members. At-large members shall have a term of three (3) years with two (2) at-large members to be elected each year.
- B. Specialty representatives shall consist of one (1) member from the education community, one (1) member from the engineering community, one (1) member from the public safety community, and one (1) member from a non-US fire safety organization, and shall be appointed for a one-year term by a majority vote of the Board after the election at the annual business meeting, or at a regularly scheduled Board of Directors meeting if suitable candidates are not identified at the annual business meeting. These members shall be Regular, Associate or Affiliate members of the IAFC, members in good standing of the section, and shall have a vote on matters before the Board of Directors.
- C. The Board of Directors may appoint three (3) ex-officio advisors, who offer specific expertise which would be helpful to assist the board with their work. Ex-officio advisors have a voice but no vote on matters before the board and shall be appointed for a one-year term by a majority vote of the board after the annual business meeting. There will be no section funding provided for ex-officio advisors unless extenuating circumstances permit it at the discretion of the Executive Committee.
- D. The immediate past chair shall hold an ex-officio position as the immediate past chair. The immediate past chair shall serve in the position until the member is no longer the immediate past chair.

Section 3. Vacancies

- A. In the event of a vacancy occurring in the office of the chair, the duties of the office shall devolve upon the vice chair until a chair is elected in the next annual election for the remainder of the unexpired term. If the vice chair does not choose to assume the duties of the chair or there is a vacancy in the office of the vice chair, the majority vote of the Board of Directors shall appoint an individual as chair who shall serve until the next annual election when the unexpired term shall be filled by a majority vote of the members.
- B. In the event of a vacancy occurring in the office of the international director, the majority vote of the section's Board of Directors shall appoint an individual as international director who shall serve until the next annual election when the unexpired term shall be filled by a majority vote of the members.
- C. In the event of a vacancy occurring in the office of the vice chair or in the office of the secretary/treasurer, or in the event of a vacancy in the office of the chair when there is also a vacancy in the office of the vice chair, the majority vote of the section's Board of Directors shall appoint individuals to fill the vacant positions who shall serve until the next annual election when the unexpired terms shall be filled by a majority vote of the members. The office of the vice chair and the secretary/treasurer may be left vacant if the position is vacated less than ninety (90) calendar days prior to the end of the term of said office.

D. In the event of a vacancy occurring in the office of a member at-large, the majority vote of the section's Board of Directors shall appoint an individual who shall serve until the next annual election when the unexpired term shall be filled by a majority vote of the members. At-large vacancies may be left vacant if vacated less than ninety (90) calendar days prior to the end of the term of said office.

E. In the event of a vacancy occurring in the office of immediate past chair, the position shall be offered to the immediately prior past chair. If the position is refused, the position shall remain vacant.

F. In order to be selected to fill vacancies on the Executive Committee or Board of Directors, individuals shall comply with applicable Article VI, Section 4 eligibility requirements.

G. In the event that a board member no longer meets the eligibility requirements for the position held (see Article VI, Section 4), the board, at their discretion, has the authority to allow the board member to continue to hold said office until the next annual election, at which time the unexpired term shall be filled by a majority vote of the members.

H. If at any time such officer accepts a position that, in the opinion of the Board of Directors, conflicts with the interests and values of the IAFC, the Board of Directors may, with a minimum of 75% of the Board voting in the affirmative, remove that person from office, thereby creating a vacancy in that office,
